

There are four main genres of questioning. It helps when solving a question to know what the question genre is. Each genre requires a different mindset to resolve.

Decision Making, Creativity / Curiosity, Connecting, Leadership

Write some example questions in each of the genres

Decision Making

Decision Making questions - help you work through your own bias. Good decision making demands critical thinking, open ended questioning. Blooms Taxonomy

Creativity/ Curiosity

Explorative and inspirational Questions, creativity is a journey of inquiry that often starts with a powerful WHY, WHAT IF or BIG QUESTION.

Connecting Leadership

Relationship / connection question - empathetic Connective question can help us relate to those who see the world very differently (peers, friends, antagonists)

Visionary questions, ambitious, unexpected questions that no one else is asking.

